And also join us for Harvard's Fungus Fair on October 25th at the Museum 10:00 AM to 1:00 PM.

Both events at the Museum 26 Oxford Street, Cambridge, MA

On Saturday November 15th the Farlow will be hosting a special day of working with collections and learn how citizen scientists can help with the work of collections. This will be instead of our regular annual meeting.

More news of the Farlow will follow in a special double issue of the FoF newsletter.
